

The General Council is a governing body of the University of Madeira and was created by the Statutes of the University of Madeira of the 18th of October 2008.